DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I-X, claim(s) 1-17, 21-23, 34-35, 37, chosen from ONE of the following sequences: a nucleic acid of SEQ ID NO: 11-20, encoding SEQ ID NO: 1-10; vectors comprising the sequence and host cells comprising the vector, and methods of making the polypeptide.

Group XI-XX, claim(s) 18, 21-23, 34-35, 37, drawn to a polypeptide of ONE of the following sequences: SEQ ID NO: 11-20.

Group XXI-XXX, claim(s) 19-20, 21-23, 34-35, 37, drawn to an antibody which binds to ONE of the following sequences: SEQ ID NO: 11-20.

Group XXXI, claim(s) 24, drawn to a method of mutation of a glutamate receptor.

Group XXXII-XXXXII, claim(s) 25-27, 30-31, drawn to a method of identifying a compound which binds to ONE of the following sequences: SEQ ID NO: 11-20.

Group XXXXIII-XXXXIV, claim(s) 28-29, drawn to a method for production of a pharmaceutical composition.

The inventions listed as Groups I-XXXXIV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Groups I-XXX are drawn to separate, distinct inventions and are distinguished from each other because the special technical features which define them by chemical and physical characteristics i.e. structure/function, as well as biological functions are different and these special technical features are not shared by each invention. Since these special technical features are not shared by each product and since the common features do not establish an advance over the prior art, the inventions of Groups I-XXX do not form a single inventive concept within the meaning of Rule 13.2

Groups XXXI-XXXXIV are drawn to methods different in design and performance, and which do not share the same or a corresponding special technical feature which define the contribution of each invention. The methods of Groups XXXI-XXXXIV do not share a corresponding special technical feature because the methods are practiced with materially different process steps for materially different purposes and each method requires different starting materials, process steps and goals. Since these special technical features are not shared by each process, and since the common features do not establish an advance over the prior art, the inventions of Groups XXXI-XXXXIV do not form a single inventive concept within the meaning of Rule 13.2.

The invention of Group XI-XX is separate and distinct from the invention of Group XXXII-XXXXII because the invention of Group XI-XX may be used in other methods than those of Group XXXII-XXXXII, such as in the production of antibody.

The invention of Group I-X is separate and distinct from the invention of Group XXXXIII-XXXXIV because the invention of Group I-X may be used in other methods than those of Group XXXXIII-XXXXIV, such as in the production of protein.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
